Veterans' Employment	September 1	7:00 AM	10:00	Hometown Happenings

A follow-up to Bill MacCormick's two-part series on Adapting to a World without Jobs a few weeks ago. MacCormick talks to Mike Melandro, Alabama State Director for Senior (55+) Community Service Employment Program which serves all 67 Alabama counties, including Walker County (Cordova). Melandro says he's familiar with the research from The Sloan Center on Aging and Work at Boston College, which originated the paper on employment transitioning from full-time traditional to part-time. Melandro says that's what his department is all about: helping mature workers find employment and volunteer opportunities which can evolve into paid employment. He gives his direct phone line and website for more information.

National Preparedness Month	September 28	6:00 AM	10:00	Hometown Happenings
	September 28	7:00 AM

Cordova is no stranger to catastrophes. September is National Preparedness Month. Bill MacCormick talks to Mike Casper, Emergency Services Specialist with the American Red Cross, who says that Alabama ranks #2 among states where the Red Cross responds to emergencies. Weather has done great damage here in Walker County, but another huge problem is single house fires.
